

PROPHECY AND PRAYER BY THAMO NAIDOO FEBRUARY 2008

Prayer

The Lord will not allow me to teach today. Just lift your hands to God. Are you ready for a new day in God? Are you sick and tired of the present brand of Christianity, and you know there's more to God? That's called divine discontentment – you know there's more to God. Yesterday's manner was good enough, but it can become today's can of worms. Every day you have to come for fresh bread from God. So I'm asking you to lift your hands and say, 'God, lead us as a congregation. Use us. Use us.'

Just worship Him for a moment. Let's allow the Lord to speak to us. Some of you, I feel in the spirit, you've been coasting. Taking it easy, just being happy at being a Christian. The Holy Ghost is saying to me now, where you stand is your altar. It's time for you to make a re-dedication to Him. In Psalm 84 the Bible says that, my soul, it longs for your courts, it faints for your tabernacle. Speaks of the sparrow and the swallow, who has chosen to build a nest on the altar, and lay its eggs in that nest. In other words, it prefers to make its home on the altar of sacrifice. And sacrifice its future on that altar. If the bird of the sky has the audacity to come without protocol to an altar and lay its nest, how much more should we give our lives to God.

Re-dedicate your life, re-dedicate your marriage. This is a New Day. Don't miss the season. You can look at it from the vantage point of the heavens one day, and yes, you'll go to heaven if you miss the season. But you will have regrets in heaven for not being part of one of the greatest moves of God in the earth. I can assure that many in the Cloud today will trade their position to be where we are today. Because we are the finishing generation. We are making complete the things that they could not complete. What a privilege to be living today. So make a dedication to the Lord. Make a dedication.

Father, accept the dedication of these Your people, whom you love and gave Your life for. Many of them are coming back home, to the place of devotion and dedication, to re-surrender. Lord, I am asking now that You would renew their strength, that You would revive their spirits, and restore them to the place where You plan for them to be. Give them a reward, like You paid the eleventh-hour worker the same wage as the first-hour workers. Father, equalize the playing fields. Bring down the mountains, and raise up the valleys, that everyone will be at the same place, in this journey as they move forward.

I pray for this house. I pray for Stephen, and for Truandi, for the ministerial, the pastoral, the apostolic team. For every leader of whatever tier, that they are functioning in. I ask o God that You connect them to the frequency of what You are doing. Fine-tune their spirits, adjust their mentalities, bring them to compliancy with the heavenly order. Make this house a gateway through which You can enter into this city, and establish Your purposes. Raise up a body of people here, that are sold-out to serving You with absolute devotion and total surrender. Father, bring them to that place. Renew the energy of this house. Revive their spirits. Give them a fresh message, a pure and clean message, that will become their new mandate. Pray for it, pray for it in Jesus' Name.

Prophecy

I see in the Spirit Stephen, I see that God is taking off an old skin, and He is now going to put on a new skin for you. It's like you're gonna shed off, like an animal, like a snake, that gives off the old skin. God's going to put a brand-new skin upon you, He's gonna re-clothe you. And that's not just for you, its for every single person connected to your spirit. God's re-mantling you. It's like the garment of Joseph. It has many colors, but this is not a clothing as in a physical dress. These are the prisms of life, of light. He's going to wrap you in the many colors of light. That the clothing you're going to see upon you, is the glorious garment of Light. And in it is all the equipment, all the resources, all the anointings. It's not gonna come in the traditional way that you've done things. You're gonna feel the sound of your voice changing, the temperament of your spirit changing, and you're gonna just be the symptom of what's gonna happen in this entire house. The drive in you is gonna change, there's gonna be a meekness, a mellowness, a calmness that this house has not been familiar with. God's gonna give you wisdom, and He's gonna touch that lip, that tongue of yours, and give you the wisdom of the learned, the aged. I see it.

I see great wealth coming into this house. That's one of the anointings on this coat of many colors. Great wealth. Not just in money and material things, but in anointings and gracings. There's going to be an intimacy in the spirit, like you've never experienced before. I see it happening within the next 90 days. In the next 90 days, start counting from today. Waves of blessings. One of the physical signs of it will be financial breakthroughs. But don't get caught up with the breakthrough, it's only a sign. Because where the glory is, gold is attracted to it. I see it. Sudden contracts, new jobs, promotions, breakthroughs, healing in marriages. I see a fresh love coming to marriages. This is gonna happen, happen quickly. Quickly. There's gonna be a calmness in this house. Even the sound of the worship, there's gonna be a deepness, a stillness, a quietness - yet in it will be a loudness. There will be a shout, but it will not be a noise. It will not be a scream. There will be a blast, but you will know the voice of God in it. I see this happening. Expansion is coming to this house. Bless You, Lord. So God's re-clothing you, re-mantling you. He's gonna appropriately fit you for this level of the journey; for this measure of the feast.

I see that there's some people that have been skeptical of the season. You've not shown it verbally, you've hidden it in your hearts, even though you've given your full support. But you have had doubts. God says He'll confirm to you, starting now, that you are in the right place. You were not sure, because you were measuring what's happening here, with everything out there. God says, stop doing that. The witness is not outside, it will be in your spirit. 'I will bring affirmation and confirmation to you.'

People will be attracted to you, people will come to this house. You don't have to go and look for them. God's gonna send people to this house, like you've never experienced before. Quality people, precious people, skilled people. Many of them will become mighty men and women, together with those that are here.

So honor Your Word, Father. Starting from today, quicken it with speed. Let us start today. Let us start today. Miracles. When they go to work tomorrow, miracles, breakthroughs. Let it take place in these 90 days. Let those that are plugged in to the spirit of this house start to experience eruptions, eruptions. Some of you won't sleep at night, God will be speaking to you. And you will still have all the rest you need. Visions, dreams, long periods of just waiting upon Him. The Word is gonna get fresh. Fresh, you're gonna find revival. You would love to read the Bible more than any other pleasure. It's gonna happen.

So lift those hands. Lord, I'm imparting this grace, activating it. You've honored the words that I've spoken over many congregations. Now I'm asking You Lord, to honor it in this house. That these words will come to pass within these 90 days. And let there be such a revival here, Lord, such an excitement. Let there be the spirit of family, of bonding, of loving, of embracing, of sharing, of intimacy. Let there be order, submission to leadership, camaraderie, the working together. Let this house be raised up, to be a voice in this nation, Father. To be an example of this new season. And may those that come here, that are wounded and troubled, find healing and peace.

I bless Stephen. I bless Truandi. I bless Samantha. I bless this church. I bless each one of them. Bless them in the Name of Jesus. Bless them. I bless the pastors, André and your beloved wife, Dawid and your wife. Bless you in Jesus' Name. Bless you as you work together, Hennie. And the staff, I bless each one, in Jesus' Name. Bless them Father. And everybody said, Amen. So Be It, that's what 'amen' means.
